REMARKS

Suspect #1 is a male, approximately 5'8" and 180 pounds, and was wearing tall dark-colored Muck boots. He was also wearing a navy blue or black jacket, with a grey Under Armour hooded sweatshirt underneath. Suspect #2, possibly a female, is approximately 5'7" and 135 pounds, and was wearing a dark jacket and light-colored jeans.

DETAILS

At approximately 4 a.m. on November 16, 2016, two unidentified suspects broke into the St. Mary's Supermart, also known as St. Mary Grocery, located at 3 Going To the Sun Highway Road in St. Mary, Montana, on the Blackfeet Indian Reservation.

The individuals broke into the store by discharging a firearm through one of the front glass doors. The store's assistant manager, who lives in the store, was awakened by the noise. The suspects attempted to steal some alcoholic beverages, and then fled the store.

The Blackfeet Law Enforcement Services and the FBI are working jointly on the investigation. Anyone with information about the crime, or identities of the suspects, is asked to call the Shelby, Montana FBI Office at (406) 424-8411.
